Performances

Presented by the Town of Aurora

Toronto Welsh Male Voice Choir | April 12, 2026 | 1 p.m.

Be delighted, as Toronto Welsh Male Voice Choir sings the achingly beautiful songs of Wales. Be transported by the cheeky choir with the goose bump harmonies, as the singers move on with selections from opera, Canadian folk, pop and Broadway. Expect artistry, nuance, stunning choir soloists and laughter. Be there. The joy is contagious.

The Knitting Pilgrim | April 19, 2026 | 3 p.m.

Experience The Knitting Pilgrim, a captivating one-man play and talkback with Kirk Dunn. Discover his 15-year journey creating stunning stained-glass-inspired tapestries exploring Abrahamic faiths. Bring your own knitting (#BYOK) and stitch along during this unique, thought-provoking performance.

Star Wars Day | May 4, 2026 | 7 p.m.

Celebrate Star Wars Day with an epic film screening! Join fellow fans for a galaxy far, far away adventure on the big screen. Costumes encouraged, fun guaranteed, May the Fourth be with you!

Yuk Yuk's Comedy on Tour | August 22, 2026 | 8 p.m.

Get ready for a night of non-stop laughter at Yuk Yuk's! Featuring top comedians delivering sharp wit and hilarious stories, this show guarantees unforgettable fun. Grab your friends and join us for comedy at its best!

Events

Presented by the Town of Aurora

Aurora Pride Festival | May 31, 2026 | 1 p.m.

Join the Aurora Community Band, Borealis Big Band, with the Town of Aurora as we celebrate our 2nd annual Pride Festival. This kick off to Pride month will feature Pride inspired live music, art, and local Pride organizations. All community members are welcome to attend this fun-filled event followed by a ticketed performance by the host bands and a special Drag performance!

Emancipation Day | August 1, 2026

On August 1, 1834, people of African descent marked the end of more than 250 years of enslavement throughout the British Empire with organized celebrations. Join us at Aurora Town Square as we mark this historic date and celebrate Emancipation Day!
